Fredrick K. Morrissey
In Memoriam

He was a man who deeply touched all he met. a warehouse of knowledge with its doors flung open at all times.

He had a unique verve and charm. He could carry a whip and a rose with no seeming contradiction. and his voice had a personality of its own whether advising. analyzing or chastising.

He worked with excited passion. with a world problem or a problem kid. trying diligently to find answers for both.

At times he had a gruff exterior. but his thoughts and his concerns. within. were for his fellow teachers and his students well-being and enrichment.

For ten years he labored with us. placing all he posessed. his intellect. his enthusiasm. his wit. his perseverence and his heart. into his work.

We all mourn the loss of a man who was a true friend to us all.

May we remember him in our thoughts and our prayers.
